X1 I think this needs to be drafted a bit more smoothly before it goes up to the Admiral as a proposed briefing for the President. I've made a number of marginal comments, etc. Also, one problem you do not cite in your basic text is that some of the terrorists we are most concerned with are U.S. persons operating internationally - the Cuban exiles. (The [redacted] case will be on people's minds.) Also, since you indicate there are three kinds of problems in II, suggest you break up your good examples accordingly.
